

About Us

Little Taste of Italy was founded in 2005. We are located in Altamonte Springs, Florida, USA. Owner is originally from Brooklyn, New York. We are an Internet-based company that sells Italian Apparel and Novelties. We have just added some delicious home-baked Italian-style cookies to our line of products. Many customers and friends and family that have tasted our cookies have asked us to go commercial with them. So, we listened. I dedicate these cookies to my Mom. Both my Mom and my Grandmother let me do all the baking when I was young. They helped me keep the Italian Heritage a tradition! But, my inspiration goes out to my husband, Joe, who also enjoys my baking these wonderful Italian dolce treasures and encourages me to continue baking.

We thank you for your interest in our home-made cookies and hope you enjoy them too! Take care and God Bless.

Grazie!

Ciao,
Antoinette
